NWF Group plc announces that wholly owned subsidiary Boughey Distribution Ltd has renewed a long term contract with major customer Princes Ltd.

The contract will see Boughey continuing to provide warehouse and distribution services from its base at Wardle.

CONTRACT WITH PRINCES LIMITED

NWF Group plc announces that its food distribution division, Boughey Distribution Ltd, has renewed a significant contract with Princes Ltd to continue providing warehousing and distribution of Princes food and drink products into the UK grocery market. The long term contract will enhance stability and continue to provide a supply chain solution for Princes products located at the Wardle warehouse facility.

Commenting on the renewed contract, Keith Forster, Boughey's Managing Director said: "Princes is one of the UK's most significant food and drink groups and Boughey is proud to work in partnership with such a well-established company. Significant enhancements to our IT systems and upgraded warehousing and distribution services at Wardle will provide Princes with an up to date, flexible solution that will further improve their ability to meet the demands of their customers and millions of consumers".
