NEW CONTRACT WITH PRINCES FOODS

NWF Group plc ("NWF Group" or the "Company"), the diversified sales and distribution business is pleased to announce that its distribution division, Boughey Distribution Ltd ("Boughey"), has renewed a significant contract with Princes Foods Ltd ("Princes") to enhance and increase the warehousing and distribution of Princes products into the grocery retail sector. The 3 year contract will provide for significant growth potential for Princes products which will be located in the new Wardle warehouse facilities that have recently been completed.

Commenting on the reinvigorated contract, Keith Forster, Boughey's Managing Director said: "Princes are one of the UK's most significant players in the UK food industry and Boughey is proud to work closely with such a well established grocery supplier. Significant enhancements to our IT systems and upgraded warehousing and distribution services at Wardle will provide Princes with an up to the minute, flexible solution that will further improve their ability to meet the demands of the retail supply chain."

Frank Murphy, Group Logistics Director at Princes added: "The Boughey expansion programme at Wardle will support the ambitious growth plans for the Princes group. The new contract will enable our partnership with Boughey to further develop the ongoing improvement programmes we have to achieve critical goals of excellent customer service and cost effective, efficient distribution."
